

1 of the funds appropriated under this heading in the preceding fiscal year, the 2 amounts made available shall remain available until expended, and shall be subject 3 to the reporting requirements described in the accompanying statement, except that 4 no such amount may be obligated before the date on which the plan is submitted to 5 the committees, and any reprogramming shall follow the ordinary procedures that 6 apply to accounts of a similar character under prior appropriations acts, provided 7 that the limitation in this paragraph shall not apply to amounts transferred for 8 administrative expenses within the same account during the period of availability.
