

1 notwithstanding any other provision of law, the amounts withheld under the terms
2 of the preceding paragraph shall be released upon submission of the spending plan 3 required by the accompanying report, and shall thereafter be available for the 4 purposes described therein, except that not more than five percent may be used 5 for administrative costs, and the head of the agency shall notify the committees 6 not later than fifteen days before any obligation is incurred in excess of that 7 limit, together with a written justification setting out the basis for the excess 8 and the expected effect on the balance of the account for the fiscal year.
